THOUSANDS HERE FOR MEMORIAL DAY

Bright and Early Town People were about in Anticipation of the Events of the Day. Veterans not to be Forgotten.

Bright and early this morning Gettysburg's energetic citizens were up and bustling about in eagerness for the affairs of the day. The housewife was preparing to entertain her guests, the small boy to have his fun out of the day, the business man to secure his profits, the temporary "takir" to make a little money, the restaurant and hotel people to feed the thousands and the veterans, why, nine out of every ten people have this part of the day—the most important—stored safely away in their brains, so safely that they never think of it.

Yes, the veterans were about early this morning, too. It is the one day of all the year for all old soldiers and those in Gettysburg, those living in the most famous town in America, are no less keenly interested and enthusiastic than their brothers, who are not so fortunate as to live at such an historic spot.

Eight members of the local post have died during the past twelve months, contributing their share to the 40,000 who passed away in various parts of the country. And as they grow older the living veterans love more than ever to honor the memory of their departed comrades, enduring patiently the profanation of the day set aside for themselves and hallowed memories.

This much for the real significance of the day. Now for the things which are uppermost in the minds of Gettysburg and its throngs of visitors.

The arrival of the first excursions between eight and nine o'clock, loaded as they were with hundreds of persons gave a good indication of what might be expected during the day, and the trains following fully met these expectations. All were well filled and before the freshness of the morning air had worn away Gettysburg was entertaining several thousand guests. Some of the early excursionists had come a distance without breakfast and hotels and restaurants were their first thought upon arriving in town. Those who came later either started quickly for the battlefield or loitered a while in town taking in the "fakirs" stands, or merely wandering aimlessly about.

But the crowd was not made up entirely of strangers and many a Gettysburg home had its quota of guests. Gettysburg always throws wide open the doors of its hospitable homes to welcome and entertain friends and relatives who come for the big annual event. This year, with added attractions, saw the number swollen to larger proportions than ever.

And the people from the county. Didn't they come in? Bright and early the roads in every part of "Old Adams" bore the rural people coming to town for their day off. Late spring kept but a few at home and for one day crops could take care of themselves. Weather mattered little and Gettysburg was the one thing in mind.

Yes, it is Memorial Day 1912 and even if your thoughts are on other things during the balance of the day join with the veterans in their "five minutes for memories" from noon to five minutes after twelve. Just forget everything else. It won't hurt you and join the boys of '68 who are here in their simple but expressive tribute to those over whom "taps" has sounded for the last time.

EXPECT BIG ENCAMPMENT

Grand Army Encampment Next Week Promises to be One of the Most Successful for Some Years. The Program as now Announced.

One of the most successful Grand Army encampments that Gettysburg has had for a number of years will be held here next week when hundreds of veterans from all parts of the state will journey to Gettysburg for their annual reunion and business sessions. Adjutant General Suydam is now here making final preparations for the encampment.

The local committee in charge are anxious that Gettysburg put forth a special effort to entertain this gathering in a fitting manner. In recent years the town has done practically nothing to show the veterans that their presence was appreciated and a general request is made that all business firms decorate their places elaborately for the week and that wherever possible private families help along the general scheme. The Grand Army has a number of times considered seriously the selection of Gettysburg as the permanent place for the annual encampments, and a hearty welcome given by the citizens of town could do no harm in this cause.

The advance guard is expected to arrive Monday and headquarters will be established at the Eagle Hotel Tuesday afternoon is named as the time for all delegates to report and receive their badges. Tuesday evening a camp fire will be held in the Court House and the general public is cordially invited to attend. The address of welcome will be made by the Rev. J. B. Baker and Prof. Baer has been engaged to sing four patriotic solos.

Wednesday morning the first business session will be held in the Wizard Theatre. Two sessions will be held Wednesday and two on Thursday to which only veterans and delegates will be admitted. Wednesday evening will be devoted to receptions, reunions and other like social events.

At the same time the Grand Army is meeting the Women's Relief Corps will be holding their annual sessions in Brum Chapel and the Ladies of the G. A. R. in the Court House. Large numbers of these are expected to attend and, with the customary large number of veterans anticipated, Gettysburg may expect the encampment of 1912 to be fully up to the standard of those of other years.

ROOSEVELT WINS ALL IN JERSEY

Will Have Solid Delegation of Twenty-Eight Votes.

MAJORITY OVER TAFT 16,000

Woodrow Wilson, on the Democratic Ticket, Gets 24 Delegates and Carries State by About Same Figure.

Trenton, N. J., May 30.—The Roosevelt victory in New Jersey at Tuesday's primaries was so complete and so widespread as to leave but little consolation for the regular Republican organization which, although divided, had in the main supported President Taft.

From the latest returns it appears that Roosevelt carried the state by a majority of between 16,000 and 17,000 over Taft. The colonel not only carried all of the twelve congressional districts and the four delegates at-large, giving him the entire twenty-eight delegates from the state, but he got a majority on the preferential vote in nearly all of the twenty-one counties. The few scattering counties that are placed in the Taft column gave the president such narrow margins as to be almost negligible.

With about 40 per cent of the Republican vote polled in the state at large, the Roosevelt victory was all that his most ardent followers had hoped for and more than most of them had expected.

Notwithstanding the loss of the four delegates in the two Essex districts controlled by former United States Senator James Smith, Jr., and James R. Nugent, Governor Wilson's victory is scarcely less satisfactory to his followers on the Democratic side. With the single exception of Essex county, there were only two or three districts in the state in which the Wilson opposition made even a substantial showing, so that the Wilson faction feel confident in claiming that New Jersey Democracy is practically unanimous for the governor.

Revised returns showed little substantial change. The First district, consisting of Camden, Gloucester and Salem counties, was carried by Roosevelt by about $25 plurality. In the Second district, made up of Cape May, Cumberland, Atlantic and Burlington counties, Roosevelt had a majority of nearly 2000. He carried all three counties except Atlantic, which gave the president 769 majority.

The Third district, comprising Monmouth, Middlesex and Ocean counties, was somewhat closer, the Roosevelt majority there being placed at less than 700.

The Fourth district, Mercer and Hunterdon counties, gave Roosevelt a majority of a trifle more than 1000, which was reduced by 100 in Somerset. Union and Morris counties, comprising the Fifth district, gave Roosevelt a majority of about 400, Morris being carried by the Taft delegates by less than 200.

Warren, Sussex, Bergen and the slice of Passaic going to make up the Sixth district each gave small majorities for Roosevelt, making his total in the district 535. The Seventh district, made up of the rest of Passaic county, gave Roosevelt 1200. The Eighth district, consisting of part of Essex and Hunterdon, gave Roosevelt a majority of nearly 3000. The Ninth and Tenth districts, comprising the rest of Essex, gave him majorities of approximately 1000 and 1200 respectively. The Eleventh and Twelfth districts, constituting the greater part of Hudson county, went for Roosevelt by approximately 1100 and 1700 respectively.

TAFT'S HOPE IN COMMITTEE

Friends Believe National Body Will Award Contests to Him.
Washington, May 30.—President Taft's belief that he has enough delegates pledged and instructed for him to control the Republican national convention was not shaken by the victory of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt in the New Jersey primaries.

White House officials made no official statement, but Taft leaders who saw the president would not recede from the president's own figures made public in several of his New Jersey speeches, which he said gave him thirty more than necessary to nominality.

Friends of Mr. Taft admitted that much now depended upon the Republican national committee. They were confident, they said, that the committee would be for Mr. Taft. Talk of defections among southern delegates pledged or instructed for the president were revived, but Mr. Taft's political advisers professed to believe that these delegates would stick to him to the end.

CONGRESS PLANS TO QUIT JUNE 15

House Leaders Rushing Their Final Business.

Washington, May 30.—Informal caucuses of senate and house leaders has brightened the prospects for an early adjournment of congress, with only the senate casting gloom on the program. That June 15 may yet be "get away day" is strongly believed at both ends of the capitol.

With a vote imminent in the senate in the steel tariff and early settlement of the Lorimer ouster case, senate leaders plan to let the Democrats hurriedly pass other tariff bills, jump through the appropriation bills and close down.

Few speeches on the Lorimer affair are expected. It was rumored that Senator Lorimer because of ill health would not repeat his own defense on the floor.

Senators Smoot and Oliver openly admitted that, to expedite tariff legislation, Republicans will walk out of the senate when votes are taken and let the Democrats pass their own bills aided by Republican Progressives, giving President Taft free rein to plaster his veto on them.

Having passed the naval appropriation bill, the house "took stock" of its business and Majority Leader Underwood declared it is easily possible to adjourn June 15. Only two appropriation bills, the sundry civil and general deficiency measures—both short and containing few items for lengthy argument—remain to be passed.

ACQUIT WOMAN OF MURDER

Was Accused of Poisoning Nine Babies in Brooklyn Hospital.

New York, May 30.—A jury before Justice Scudder in the supreme court in Brooklyn acquitted Winifred Ankers of murder in the first degree in connection with the death by poison last February of nine baby inmates of the Brooklyn Nursery and infants' hospital.

Although charged with the death of nine infants, Miss Ankers was only indicted for the deaths of two of them—Richard Gomersall, the six months-old son of an insane mother, of whose murder she was acquitted, and Rachel Liebowitz, two months old. Bail in the latter case was fixed at $2000 after her acquittal.

THREW WET PAPER IN TAFT'S FACE

President Was Insulted by Italian in Rutherford, N. J.

THIRD DEGREE FOR CULPRIT

Attack Took Place as Mr. Taft Was About to Speak, and Detectives Rushed Him Away.

Rutherford, N. J., May 30.—President Taft's chief of the secret service men, John Wilkie, came to Rutherford and put through the third degree an Italian who is said to have thrown a package which hit President Taft in the face Saturday night when he was about to speak in the public square.

There are large Italian colonies in East Rutherford, Passaic and Paterson, from which Bresci was sent to kill King Humbert of Italy, and that is one of the reasons why the federal officers are making such a rigid investigation.

Chief of Police Burnham, of Rutherford, would not admit that an arrest had been made. He said the matter was still in the hands of the federal officials, who were continuing their investigation.

Frank M. Buckles, of Rutherford, postmaster and leader of the Taft organization in Bergen county, said:

"The 12,000 persons assembled in the public square were disappointed in not hearing the president speak, because of the act of a vandal. As the package struck the president's face he was about to speak, but the secret service men pushed him back in his seat and took charge of the affair. They ordered the car ahead at full speed through the crowd, not knowing what was in the paper, and got away. Later they informed me that the paper had been soaked in water to make it heavy."

This fact convinced the secret service men, according to Chief Burnham, that the package was not thrown accidentally, and that if no harm was meant, at least an insult to the president was intended.

BRETHREN IN SESSION

The National Conference Opens in York, Pa.

York, Pa., May 30.—Elder J. C. Royer, veteran educator and evangelist, addressed the standing committee of the Church of the Brethren, which marked the opening of the national conference which will continue in session here until June 6.

Thousands of the Brethren are in attendance and more are coming on every train. At the Tabernacle, where Elder Royer delivered his address, there were several thousand in attendance.

The standing committee is the "steering" body of the official force of the general conference. It is composed of one or two members from each state district.

This committee will choose a moderator, a reading clerk, writing clerk and a doorkeeper. While there is no politics in the selection of the presiding officer of the meeting, yet the contest for election at times becomes quite spirited.

Today's program consists, among other things, of the organization of the standing committee and sermons by B. F. Masterson, of California.

BUFFALO BILL FIGHTS MOVIES

Seeks Injunction and $25,000 For His "Wild West" Imitations.

New York, May 30.—Buffalo Bill is levying war on the moving picture shows which depict wild western scenes so vividly that they appear to threaten the profits of the veritable spectacle.

Colonel William F. Cody, with Gordon W. Lillie as a co-plaintiff, began a suit in the supreme court to recover $25,000 damages from Patrick A. Powers and Pliny P. Craft and got an injunction.

Colonel Cody and Lillie entered into a contract with the defendants in June, 1910, according to the complaint, whereby they were to receive $25,000 for opening in scenes that the defendants were to have the right to exhibit. A dispute subsequently arose, and it is maintained by the plaintiffs that payment of the money due them was refused.

TARIFF AMENDMENT LOSES IN SENATE

Bill Placed Farm Implements on Free List.

Washington, May 30.—By a vote of 35 to 34 the senate voted down an amendment to the metal tariff bill placing a large number of farming implements on the free list.

Nearly all of the affirmative votes were cast by Democrats. Several Republican senators were absent. The amendment was offered by Senator Smith, of Georgia, and was not debated.

A spirited debate was precipitated when Senator Pomerene offered an amendment to take machine tools from the house free list and assess a duty of 20 per cent. He thought the cut made by the house was too drastic.

Senator Smoot charged the Democrats with playing politics and was sharply taken to task by Senator John Sharp Williams.

The incident caused a mild sensation when Senator Rayner declared against Mr. Pomerene's amendment. "I have no use for that kind of politics," he declared. "I stand for the house bill."

Senator Lodge moved to amend the Pomerene amendment to increase the duty on machine tools to 30 per cent, but the senate voted down the Lodge proposition, most of the Progressive Republicans voting with the Democrats. The Pomerene amendment was defeated 43 to 18.

CUBAN OUTBREAK GROWING WORSE

Washington Regards Situation as Serious.

MARINES TAKE UP POSTS

Federal Troops Are Guarding Foreign Property and Making No Effort to Disperse Rebels.

Washington, May 30.—Meagre reports from Cuba received at the state department indicated that the Gomez government, despite its large force in the field, is doing little to put down the negro uprising.

The federal forces, it is said, are making no effort to seek out the rebels and capture or disperse them. The soldiers are devoting themselves entirely to guarding foreign property. A few unimportant clashes with negro raiders have occurred.

The negroes, on the other hand, are not pursuing any definite plan of campaign. They are now in greatest force in the forest and mountainous country of the Guantanamo district and contenting themselves with clandestine plundering rather than any open attacks. The character of the country in which the negroes are operating presents a great obstacle to even the most energetic military commander seeking to crush the uprising.

Criminal characters are beginning to take advantage of the unrest created by the negro revolt. They have begun robbing and plundering small shops and the homes of individuals.

Orders have been given for forty rural guardsmen to proceed to Daiquiri to protect the property of the Spanish-American Iron company. The Nashville, which was sent to Nipe bay to make an investigation into conditions there, reported that all is quiet now in that district. Large American interests are located in this district.

The American marines sent to Guantanamo on the transport Prairie have been landed on the naval station and are now encamped there. Reports to the effect that the detachment of marines had been sent to Santiago and Nipe bay were emphatically denied. Not a single marine has thus far been placed on Cuban soil, nor have any orders been issued for marines to leave the naval station territory.

Despite the lack of action in Cuba, the state department still regards the situation as extremely serious. Information has been received indicating that the extensive measures taken to insure prompt intervention in Cuba for policing purposes were thoroughly justified. A most careful watch of all phases of the situation will be maintained until decided improvement in conditions on the island has been shown.

Secretary Knox declined to comment on the charges made in Havana that President Gomez himself had incited the negroes to rise against the government. The opinion still prevails in Washington, however, that the present uprising is more than an expression of dissatisfaction with their political status by the negroes.

REBEL TELLS OF ISSUE

Declares Cuban Revolt Is Not Directed Against Whites.

Havana, May 30.—General Evaristo Estenoz, one of the leaders of the rebels in the province of Oriente, in the course of an interview with a correspondent of "El Vit" on the subject of the causes and progress of the negro rebellion in Cuba, says:

"The movement is not a racial one, but simply the action of certain Cuban citizens to assert their rights at all hazards. We have no hostility to the white people, and I have given strict orders that no violence shall be committed on whites under pain of death. One of our soldiers has been hanged for violating this order."

"If the Americans intervene they will recognize me and my followers as a political party. We are prepared to continue fighting, whatever happens. All the responsibilities for intervention must rest on the shoulders of President Gomez and the government."

The rebel forces are reported to have organized a regiment in Havana.

VOTE GETTYSBURG FUND

Senators Approve $150,000 Appropriation For Semi-Centennial.

Washington, May 30.—The senate passed a bill introduced by Senator Oliver, of Pennsylvania, appropriating $150,000 for the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg, July 4, 1915.

The congressional appropriation is designed to be used in securing a purer water supply and sanitary conditions for those attending the celebration. The state of Pennsylvania already has appropriated $250,000 and New York $275,000 for the celebration.

WORKHOUSE FULL; CAN'T SERVE TERMS

Twenty-One Saloonkeepers Pay Fines of $50 Each.

Chattanooga, Tenn., May 30.—After twenty-one liquor dealers in the criminal court had pleaded guilty and been fined $50 and costs each and sentenced to thirty days in the workhouse on the charge of violating the statewide prohibition law, Rev. J. W. Vesey, following a prayer by Rev. E. J. Baldwin, in which he asked God to rid the city of illicit liquor selling, poured out the whisky used as evidence.

"Oh, Lord," said Dr. Baldwin, "we are not praying against these men, but against their business."

The evidence on which the liquor dealers were convicted was secured by Rev. J. W. Vesey. He bought whisky at various saloons and turned it over to the grand jury.

The workhouse sentences were suspended because of lack of room in that institution.
